GROUP CORRESPONDENCE COURSE REPORT – GROUP CORRESPONDENCE COURSE REPORT

SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING February 2023

All three classes offered in 2022 made and proceeded normally. I have heard of no issues this year. We had 47 total registrants this year, across three classes.

I have been concerned in the past, and again this year, about the offerings from the GCC program from National. All the programs are good, but I have offered most of what is available. The few I have not offered I have learned from experience (similar classes didn't make) that they are not of interest to our members.

There is also a lot more competition from online classes now and many of those classes are much easier to participate in.

Therefore, this year, the classes offered are all classics, 2 encores and a long time standard.

1. Finishing with Flair with Marion Scoular, Finishing notebook class, Beginner ($36.00), <https://egausa.org/courses/finishing-with-flair/>
2. A Touch of Fall with Jane Ellen Balzuweit, Dresden Lace whitework, Intermediate to advanced, ($40.00) <https://egausa.org/courses/touch-of-fall/>
3. Desert Strands with Becky Autry, Russian drawn thread, Confident beginner to Intermediate, ($35.00) <https://egausa.org/courses/desert-strands/>

One thing I tried to be very aware of this year is the price and availability of supplies, which heavily influenced my choices. I know we all have lots of things to finish after covid lock down stitching, whitework can be done in cotton or silk, and Desert Strands can be used as a stash buster!

It still takes just 5 registrants for the class to make, and the $25.00 finishing incentive is still in place. However, we will no longer be able to add an additional class as we have in the past, other than the ones presented above.

These classes are offered as benefit of being a South Central Region member and is not open to out of region members unless they are a plural chapter/region member.

Please remember: Classes can only start once National has verified dues payment. Since that does not happen until mid-July or August, best possible starting date is early September. If you do not wish a check to be outstanding that long, just email me of your interest and I'll let you know if it makes. Don't forget, you can also sign up at Seminar. Therefore, please remind all members, but especially those interested in a GCC, to pay their dues promptly!

Beth Newton

Welcome aboard! We have planned an exciting seminar, think of it as your international train ride with lots of classes and techniques to choose from. The following 10 teachers will get your ride off to a fabulous start: Marilyn Doyle (pulled thread/whitework), Margaret Bendig (surface and canvas counted), Mendie Cannon (surface Brazilian), Janet Zickler Casey (canvas counted), Toni Gerdes (canvas counted), Deborah Mitek (surface /silk ribbon), Bobbi Norris (beading), Canby Robertson (surface non-counted), Mary Alice Sinton (Japanese Beading), and John Waddell (canvas painted and counted). In addition, we will be offering 5 mini-classes scheduled for Tuesday afternoon and evening. Participants will have the opportunity to register for several of these.

Region Day activities begin at 9:30 am on Wednesday with the following two wonderful programs: "Etuis, Boxes, & Bookmarks-Oh My!" also known as Antique Perforated Paper, Samplers, and Tools. You will receive a kit at the conclusion of Region Day so you can stitch one of the perforated paper bookmarks you will see during this presentation. The second lecture: "How Stitchers Inspired Art" will explore how stitchers have been depicted in art. For centuries, both men and women have done embroidery. This presentation illustrates how the serene embroider was and is still the subject of various artists.

We have contracted with “3 Stitches”, a local stitch shop to host our onsite boutique. So, bring your shopping list. The boutique is opening at 8 am on Wednesday. Should you like to order anything in advance for pickup at the boutique during seminar please contact Pam from 3 Stitches at 281-320-0133. Let’s not forget about Merchandise / Stash Sale Night which is scheduled for Thursday, June 8. We already have 20 tables of goodies for your viewing and shopping pleasure.
